CIVIC CENTER

City May Erect DMV Building

A state building may soon be added to the complex of city facilities centered at the west edge of the Palm Springs Airport.

Awarding of a contract for construction of a building for the Department of Motor Vehicles in the Civic Center has been announced as the sole agenda item for a special meeting of the city council Monday night.

This is a second time around on the bids by the prospective builders and the offers are close on the building proposed for the Civic Center at Tahquitz-McCallum and El Cielo road.

Bids were opened Thursday, with Heathman Construction Co. the apparent low on an offer of $47,795. But the project was advertised on a split basis — the building, yard work and concrete and street improvements. This might change the picture on the award of the contract.

The other bids ranged from a second low of $47,933 by Press Construction Co. to a high of $49,540 by Kretz and Wilson.

When completed the state will pay a rental of $450 a month to the city for use of the building.

NEWS in BRIEF

SASKATOON, Sask. (UPI) — Socialist Premier Woodrow S. Lloyd said today there was no hope of averting a doctors' strike at midnight when North America's first socialized medicine health plan goes into effect.

Saskatchewan doctors will offer only emergency treatment after tonight.

Modern Pioneer Family Visits Palm Springs

The pioneers should have had it so good.

Pulling into Palm Springs Friday afternoon, a rubber tired wagon bearing nine persons, the Leon Gillis clan, was near the end of a cross-country trek that has taken up more than nine months.

They're in a covered wagon, but that covered wagon is different from those in which our pioneers crossed the torrid Colorado Desert. The wagon is pulled by horses, but it's rubber-tired, contains a gas stove and a pile of newspaper clippings about their journey.

The early stages of the trip west has not been investigated, but of late it's been a ball. Last Saturday the Gillises were guests at the North Shore Yacht Club at Salton Sea. They stayed there over Sunday.

Living It Up
The first of this week they've lived in the land of Aladdin—on the grounds of the Riverside County Fair in Indio—with the camels yet.

Thursday night the family did not seek a water hole. They were put up at the Palm Desert Biltmore Hotel. Last night these pioneers made the best of things at the luxurious accommodations at the Howard Manor in little old rustic Palm Springs.

Gillis and his wife, Iyone, say they're making the trip because of a purposeful plan to spend a year with their children — to get really acquainted, know and love each other, before college and/or marriage breaks up their family unit.

Have Movie Offer
But the deal shows real promise of a big pay-off. The Gillises left Palm Springs this morning—headed for Warner Bros. movie studio. They've had an invitation there and Gillis disclosed yesterday he and the family plan to

MAY BE THE LAST

Sky Divers Added to Fourth of July Show

Sky divers have been added to the list of attractions at the Junior Chamber of Commerce's big Fourth of July fireworks show, it was learned today.

Members of a crack club of parachutists from Van Nuys will dive from airplanes carrying smoke bombs early in the show, then as a climax to the Independence Day celebration, will make dives after dark carrying flares.

And that may be the grand climax to a tradition of such celebrations in the community.

"The annual fireworks show has become a tradition for the people in the desert resort area, but this year's show is coming close to being the last," according to John Neil, chairman of the fireworks committee for the JayCees.

"We, the JayCees, coordinate this show and are responsible for its production, the funds are obtained through voluntary donations by desert area service clubs, businesses, and other public spirited individuals. We do not charge the public for the show, but we list those who gave donations, only that they gave, not the amount or the largest donor first.

"The JayCees have always picked up the deficit, which for the past years has been growing. Financial support is needed, and the JayCee fireworks show is a good investment for a real safe and sane Fourth."

Contributions to date, have been received from the following:

American Legion, Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, Palm Springs Elks, Fosters Freeze, Home Owners League, Knights of Columbus, Palm Springs Lions Club, Ted McKinneys, Palm Springs Moose Lodge, O'Donnell Golf Club, Rotary Club, Shrine Club, Soroptimists, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Bank of America, City Council, Col. Tom Parker and Palm Springs Junior Women's Club.

Palm Springs Police have 15 men who have volunteered their off-duty time to help with the show and provide protection.

Welcome Stirs Atmosphere of True Goodwill

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Presidents Kennedy and Adolfo Lopez Mateos arranged to dig deeper today into the thorny problem of Castro Cuba and other hemispheric questions in an atmosphere of goodwill generated by the stirring Kennedy welcome to Mexico.

A late morning meeting between the two Presidents, a continuation of talks begun Friday, was sandwiched in between ceremonies certain to bring out more tens of thousands of cheering Mexicans anxious to see the President and Mrs. Kennedy.

The meeting was scheduled for 12:30 p.m. EDT.

A large force of Mexican police maintained a constant vigil to prevent any possible anti-American or pro-Castro outbursts. Four persons were arrested Friday for trying to pass out anti-American literature, and a group of students led by a man who claimed to be their professor were chased from the vicinity of the U.S. Embassy.

But apart from that there were no outbursts. Any anti-American feeling was drowned in the tremendous welcome given the President Friday on his arrival for a 48-hour visit.

To Witness Signing
At their meeting today, the two Presidents will witness the signing of a $20 million agriculture credit for Mexico, the first big aid loan to Mexico under the Alliance for Progress program.

The 40-year loan, at 3 1/2 per cent interest and with a 10-year grace period will go for farm improvements and equipment loans for small Mexican farmers.

Two other issues loomed large in the presidential talks. One was the Colorado River, which has salty water when it reaches Mexico. The other was an old argument over 450 acres of downtown El Paso, Tex.

The United States got the land when the Rio Grande River, which is the borderline, shifted early in the century. Mexico wants the land back. A sewage disposal plant and a school are on part of the land. American officials said the Mexican government was extremely insistent that the claim be settled — in Mexico's favor.

Kennedy, showing little or no signs of fatigue after a grueling day, scheduled first today a wreath-laying ceremony at Mexico's Independence Monument.

Next, a visit to a housing project and, after his conference with Lopez Mateos, a Fourth of July celebration called early in his honor by the American community here.

Mexicans Wild About Jacqueline

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Mexicans were just wild about Jacqueline Kennedy today.

The American First Lady, fresh as a daisy in one dazzling outfit after another, measured up to all they had heard about her — a beautiful woman with a charming manner and winning smile.

"Oh, but she is so lovely," was an oft-repeated remark by men and women who caught a glimpse of her as she traveled through the city Friday.

Mexican bars came out with a Jacqueline cocktail: Two parts gin, two parts orange juice and one part apricot brandy. Cost, 80 cents.

Today she faced 13 hours of visits and ceremonies starting with a visit to a child welfare institute with Mrs. Adolfo Lopez Mateos, wife of Mexico's president, and ending with a reception given by Foreign Minister Manuel Tello for 2,000 persons.

Mrs. Kennedy was a heroine even before she arrived, and the "vivas" for her were as loud and as fervent as for her husband on their triumphal arrival Friday.

Mrs. Kennedy, planned to appear in a different gown at each of today's functions, including a Fourth of July party held early in the Kennedy's honor by the American community.

She dazzled Mexicans Friday with three separate outfits — an iridescent green silk two piece ensemble, a stark, sleeveless white dress with four big black buttons on the front, and for an evening ballet, a shimmering short evening gown of blue chiffon top with a bell skirt of tiered white lace.

The ballet performance was the last function attended by Mrs. Kennedy Friday and she appeared to enjoy herself hugely.

THOUSANDS CHEER, throw confetti and wave flags as President John F. Kennedy, waving back greetings, passes through downtown Mexico City in his motorcade. The tremendous welcome for the President was shared by the captivating First Lady. (UPI Telephoto)

Spa Building Permits Hit Record High

Building permits for the first six months of this year exceed the total for the complete calendar year of 1961, the city building department reported.

Total to date is $169,000 over the total for last year. For the month of June it reached $3,106,075 but fell short of the all time high of May this year, which hit the $4 million mark. May's high was above any month on record.

The tramway was responsible for $1,014,000 of this month's building permits, while the other $2 million was spread over a large area of new apartments, alterations and a few commercial buildings.

Swimming pools are still on the move upward in figures. Some 2,747 is the figure, according to the building permits issued, for the number now in the city.

Elects President

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The General Federation of Women's Clubs Thursday elected Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold of Concord, N.H., its president for a two-year term. She succeeds Mrs. E. Lee Osborn of Oklahoma City.

Ike Tells Businessmen To Rush Into Politics

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower advised businessmen today to "get into politics quick."

to cope with the Kennedy administration.

Eisenhower and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon were the principal speakers at a gathering of about 100 Republican leaders who met to set up an "All Republican Conference" to speak for the GOP while the Democrats hold the White House.

Nixon, in his first national political appearance since being nominated for governor of California, attacked the administration for "the increasing tendency to centralize power in Washington."

Eisenhower said "every businessman has now been awakened up that politics means much more to his business than he thought it had."

"Therefore, he's got to make politics his first business," he said, "because until we have sound government he is not going to have a prosperous business, not in the long run."

Eisenhower said that if the Republican party can get across to businessmen the message that politics and government are tied closely to their future "we will be on the road to real victory in 1962, and that is our first objective."

"For my part, I think our country is facing a very critical period, and I believe that only some resurgence of Republican control over government can keep things on a more level keel than they are going on at the moment," Eisenhower said.

Eisenhower and Nixon spoke to the GOP leaders in a big green and white tent set up in a pasture on the former president's farm.

TWO MEN were taken to Desert Hospital Friday after an automobile crash on Indian Avenue and Oasis. Leo Wozniak, 49, of 67-920 Highway 111, Palm Springs, was admitted to the hospital with injuries but was reported in "good condition."

Michael Lee Gibson, 19, Maywood, was taken to Desert Hospital for a checkup and released. The California Highway Patrol said Wozniak turned in front of the car driven by Gibson.

New Health Care Bill Hits Hopper

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Health care supporters began a drive today for Senate action on a bipartisan compromise to provide medical benefits for all the nation's aged.

The compromise bill unveiled late Friday would invite states and private insurance companies to participate, and would cover about 2.5 million elderly persons President Kennedy's original proposal left out.

If passed, it would take effect in 1964, and, for three years, provide basic health benefits for 17.5 million persons over 65, regardless of whether they are covered by Social Security.

After 1967, persons reaching the age of 65 would have to be covered by general Social Security to be eligible for the health benefits.

Built Around Original

The bill is built around Kennedy's original medical care for the aged proposal. It still would pay for coverage through higher Social Security assessments.

The necessary increase for a worker making $5,200 or more would be $13 a year, with a similar hike for their employers. This is unchanged from the original versions.

The Social Security feature is hotly opposed by the American Medical Association and many Republicans.

Nevertheless, the compromise included five Republicans among its supporters and apparently assured the fiercely contested medical care proposal of at least a vote in the Senate. The bill's backers planned to try to tack the compromise proposal to the welfare bill Monday.

The major changes made in working out the compromise would:

Covers 2.5 Million

—Cover about 2.5 million persons not under Social Security. Kennedy's original bill would have covered only those persons participating in Social Security.

—Permit states to set up their own health care plans. This would be done by sending the participating state a lump sum to provide the basic health care for its aged. The state could then contract with a private insurance firm for a huge group policy for its citizens, and would be free to add state money in order to buy more extensive benefits.

Sad Day for Royalty in Palm Springs

"Royalty" left Palm Springs Tuesday, followed by a police warrant on a trick and device charge police reported.

The said Count Yogi, who formerly resided at the Palm Springs Country Club in Cathedral City, stopped at Plaza Motors to have his car repaired and wanted to pay with a post-dated check.

No checks, he was told, so he left his car for repair and returned on Wednesday.

Asking for the amount of his bill for repairs, he made out a post-dated check, which was refused. Throwing the check on the desk of the cashier, he ran out of the Plaza Motors office, jumped in his car and was believed to be headed north.

This brings the story up to Thursday morning when the police went out looking for the "Count," he hadn't left town at all.

The "Count" was still at the address he had given at Plaza Motors, but when he saw the police come in the front of the building, he remembered a sudden errand and went out the back way, police said.

Dropping into the police station about noon yesterday, the "Count" asked if any one had been looking for him, and said he thought they might have a question or two. The police did. It was "How about $282.50 for bail." According to the police, the "count" was rather surprised but managed the bail.

WEEK IN REVIEW

Supreme Court Prayer Ruling Misunderstood?

By WILLIAM D. LAFFLER

United Press International

A close examination of Justice Hugo L. Black's majority opinion in the controversial school prayer decision this week leaves the impression that it may have been misunderstood.

The case involved the constitutionality of a simple, non-sectarian prayer composed by the New York State Board of Regents for recitation in the public schools. Did the regents violate the first amendment to the constitution, which guarantees separation of church from state? Six of the seven participating Supreme Court justices decided last Monday the regents did violate the amendment. Only Justice Potter Stewart dissented.

Justice Black's opinion said only that the regents, who are paid government employees, unlawfully "established an official religion."

It would prohibit any of the 50 state governments from composing prayers for their public schools.

Protest Followed

There was a storm of protest. Some felt it would completely outlaw praying in public schools.

There is nothing in the text of Justice Black's majority opinion that would forbid Johnny to ask his teacher for permission to recite the Lord's Prayer with those who wish to join in. It would not prevent school children from holding voluntary prayer meetings on school property during recess.

Such acts would not violate the first amendment, if the language of Justice Black's opinion is to be taken literally.

Since the Supreme Court's ruling prohibits only government-paid authorities from composing prayers, it does not enjoin a priest, minister or rabbi from writing a non-sectarian prayer accepted by a majority of a school's pupils and their parents.

Some congressmen fear the court has gone too far, however, and now seek to circumvent the ruling legally by constitutional amendment.

President Kennedy, who took the oath of office on a bible held by Chief Justice Earl Warren, said at his news conference Wednesday that the people must support the action of the Supreme Court even though they may often disagree with it.

Cheered In Mexico

At the same time, Kennedy encouraged parents to say more prayers with their children at home.

It was a momentous week for Kennedy, who saw some of his legislation doomed or endangered and some of it favored, before taking off for Mexico City on a goodwill visit.

The President and Mrs. Kennedy arrived in the Mexican capital Friday and received an enthusiastic welcome from a crowd estimated at two million.

Mexico and the United States are at odds on some matters, such as the Cuban situation. Mexican president Adolfo Lopez Mateos does not consider Cuba a Communist state, for instance. And while the brief visit of the Kennedys was not expected to cause any abrupt change of heart on the Cuba matter by Lopez Mateos, there were indications that the mission would draw the two neighbor nations closer together.

Other major developments: Soblen — Robert Soblen, convicted of wartime espionage for the Soviet Union, fled to Israel on the day before he was scheduled to begin a life sentence. There is no extradition treaty with Israel, but the United States received assurances Soblen would be expelled.

Formosa — President Kennedy warned Red China, which is engaged in large-scale troop movements on the mainland opposite Quemoy and Matsu, the United States would take action if they attempted to use the islands as a bridgehead for an assault on Formosa. Kennedy also warned Chiang Kai-shek that the United States wants no offensive against the mainland by the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa.

The film which has had the highest gross earnings (amount paid by theatre owners) is "The Ten Commandments," with $49 million up to May, 1959.

And the Dog Can't Deny The Story

Franklin Conrad Ziegler, 34, of Sunland, was hospitalized at Casa Hospital, Indio yesterday afternoon following an automobile crash on Highway 111 about one mile west of Monroe Street.

Ziegler told California Highway Patrolmen that his dog jumped on his arm while he was driving on the highway, causing him to swerve into the other lane of traffic, and when he attempted to push the dog off and come back to his lane, he ran into the other car.

The other automobile was driven by Apolonio O. Jimera, 52, of 822 Paseo Caroletta, Palm Springs. Officers said he was not injured.

Investors Encouraged as Market Scores a Whopping Gain Friday

By PETER T. EARLE

NEW YORK (UPI) — Every "capitalist" from the odd lot investor to the billion dollar fund manager breathed a sigh of relief this week as the stock market scored a big gain, snapping a string of five consecutive weekly breaks.

Wall Street's investment advisers, so wrong for so long, were gratified to find their forecasts of a recovery coming true at last as prices closed near their highs for the week.

The initial stage of the rally generally was attributed to continuing institutional support as the market touched 525 in the Dow-Jones industrial average. The technicians call this point a powerful support area where three 1956-57 bull markets topped out.

The big rally came on Thursday morning, and when the bears failed to snuff it out by noon, worried short sellers who had borrowed stock in the hope of replacing it at a low price, began covering and produced one of the biggest gains in the history of the averages.

Extended Rally

The market rallied further on the same type of short covering action Friday. Trading, fairly quiet in the early sessions, had reached an active crescendo by the final sessions.

As the week closed the industrial average stood at 561.28 up 22.09 on the week. Ralls were ahead 1.41 to 118.63 and utilities up 3.61 to 108.28.

The Standard & Poor's 500-stock index closed at 54.75 for a week-to-week gain of 2.07. The agency estimated that this was equivalent to a rise of $10.9 billion in paper values.

During the week a total of 1,472 issues traded. Advances outnumbered declines by the top heavy margin of 937 to 403, but new lows for the year on an intra-day basis exceeded new highs by 621 to four.

Active Issues Gain

American Telephone, the nation's most widely owned stock, again ranked as the most active.

It traded 407,700 shares and climbed 3 points to 103¾. Following it in volume were Polaroid up 8¼, U. S. Steel up 1¼, Xerox up 14½ and Zenith up 3¼.

Among blue chip features were Alcoa up 4½, Chrysler up 2, Du Pont up 2¾, Kodak up 3¼, Ford up 2¼, General Motors 2¼, General Electric 4, General Foods 2½, International Nickel 3¼, Johns-Manville 2½, Owens-Illinois 2, Union Carbide 4½ and United Aircraft 3¾.

Many steels ran ahead three or more points, among them Armco, Granite City, Inland, Jones & Laughlin, Lukens and Youngstown—despite the July cutback plans.

Fractured, Winnie Had Good Night

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Winston Churchill had a good sleep and spent a "comfortable night" following surgery to mend his fractured thigh bone, Middlesex Hospital announced today.

The news cheered a nation which had paid attention to little else since the 87-year-old warrior, statesman and author fell in his hotel room in Monte Carlo Thursday.

Dr. P. H. Newman, one of the surgeons involved in the operation on the former prime minister, said as he was leaving the hospital Friday night: "The old man is going to be all right."

Lady Churchill had emerged from the hospital shortly before that smiling broadly and saying to reporters who asked how her husband was, "can't you guess?"

It was reported Friday night that the operation took about an hour and that the doctors drove a steel pin through the ends of the fracture to help it knit properly.

This was not spelled out in the medical bulletin which said merely: "The fixation of the fracture of the neck of the femur was carried out this evening successfully. Sir Winston's condition after the operation is at present satisfactory."

CATHEDRAL CITY

Three Local Youths Attend Boys State

By JEAN PATANE

CATHEDRAL CITY—A week in Sacramento for Cathedral City boys Lee Lamb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Berton Lamb, David Gordon, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gordon, and Stanley DeGrucio, son of the Lou DeGrucio, will long be remembered as an experience each feel they were fortunate to be a part of. They were chosen to represent Palm Springs High School at Boys' State sponsored for many years by the American Legion and assisted by any other organization financing the expenses of a boy.

Lee Lamb was sponsored by the Palm Springs Lions Club, David Gordon by the 40 & 8 and Stanley DeGrucio by Palm Springs Owen Coffman Post 519 American Legion. During their week of running a government, both state and local, Lee was a county supervisor, David was a member of the local police force and Stanley was an assemblyman. Offices were won in highly contested elections.

Following a six-month visit with Mrs. Nellie Williams, their friend for many years, Mr. and Mrs. Reo Beaudette left the end of the week to return to their home in St. Paul, Minn.

Over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Ed Park who have closed their Cottage Cafe for the summer, visited with their daughter Mrs. Thea Killen and her son Britt who were at Lake Arrowhead and Lake Gregory.

Last week houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hagen and son, Jim, were her daughter and children, Mrs. R. W. (Jan)

Ingraham and Ricky and Kathy, who make their home in Napa. Mrs. Hagen with her daughter, son and grandchildren spent the day at Disneyland before the visitors left for their home from Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hill closed their Hill's Cleaners for the summer and plan to reopen shortly after Labor Day.

Mrs. Lola Bacca left for Home-wood, Lake Tahoe, to join Dorcas at her salon for the summer months. Dorcas and her daughter Sonja left for the cooler climate a month ago.

While in San Francisco for four days last week, Jim Aitchison, award winning art student who graduated from Palm Springs High this month, explored the possibilities of attending the San Francisco Art Institute in the fall. Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aitchison.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Perry Williams and Mr. and Mrs. George Gifford enjoyed a 10-day camping and fishing trip at Lake Crowley in the High Sierras.

THOUSAND PALMS

Church Message by College Folk

By BEATRICE EAVES

THOUSAND PALMS — A group of college-age persons from the Palm Springs Community Church, known as The Pairs and Spares, brought a message in word and music to the Community Church in Thousand Palms. Alta and Ray Davis are the leaders and the group meets each Tuesday night for praise and Bible Study. Lloyd Dean, who is studying for the ministry, led the song service and he and his wife, Doradean, were the soloists. David Kraft and Ronald Peck were the speakers and chose the text, "Ye Must Be Born Again."

Newcomers to Thousand Palms are Mrs. Rose Stevens, her two daughters, Razzan Stevens and Delores Hinkel, and two grandchildren, Mary Ann and Bobbi Hinkel. They are Richard Jackson's mother and family and come from Bloomington, Ill., to make their home here. They are living in the house just vacated by the Clarence Ried family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lentz have recently entertained Faye's mother Mrs. Bessie Burdick and a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Thomas, all of Pasadena.

Mrs. Jane Blake spent a few days at her home on Monte Vista Way.

Gertrude Thomas has her sister, Mrs. R. Utterback, from Gardena as her houseguest this week.

The Thousand Palms Coffee Shop has changed hands and is under new management. Clem and Nancy Mabry are the new managers.

A birthday celebration honoring Mr. Richard Kingsbury of Sierra Madre was held at the home of his Aunt Hazel Pries on Arbol Real. Other guests were Mrs. Richard Kingsbury and their four children, Richard's mother, Mrs. Carolyn Kingsbury, and her two grandchildren from Lomita. They all enjoyed their swim party in the Thousand Palms Pool.

Mrs. Mona Cunningham on Calle Jessica has just returned from Garden Grove where she was the guest of her daughter and son-in-law and granddaughter, Paulene, Ben, Dana and Paulene Wheeler.

Two Thousand Palms residents were participants in two separate car accidents in which both 1962 cars were badly damaged, with no serious injuries to any of the occupants. Mr. Tony Schaefer of Calle Jessica misread the intentions of the driver of a sand-re-moing truck on Ramon Road, and his car was considerably damaged in the tangle that resulted.

Mr. George Orwig of United Parcel Service had his vacation postponed when his car was involved in an accident on Highway 99 near Indio. Wayne Fitch, the driver of the car was uninjured.

Mrs. Elva Woodside received callers from Long Beach last week. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams, en route home from vacationing in Minnesota, stopped in Thousand Palms to see old friends and to check on their property here. They own the corner lot on Los Flores and La Canada.

Marvin Curl, recently graduated from the U. of M. at Ann Arbor, Mich., has accepted a position with Douglas Aircraft in Santa Monica. Marvin's aunt is Mae Curl in Thousand Palms.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — As far as analyst Martin Gilbert is concerned, the odds are in favor of the stock market "holding" somewhere around the 553 level of the D-JIA, which was the low point of the dramatic May 28 decline. The Van Alstyne, Noel & Co. market expert says he can't see any further deterioration from that point, because there will be substantial values at these bottom levels and investment logic should then prevail.

One of the unusual aspects of the present market, says L. O.

Received Wings

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Lt. Cmdr. Scott Carpenter Monday became the fourth person to wear the wings of an American astronaut. Navy Secretary Fred Korh pinned the wings on Carpenter at a ceremony in the Pentagon. The three other astronauts wearing the wings are Navy Lt. Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard Jr., Air Force Capt. Virgil I. Grissom and Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr.

Jerome Peck of Jerome Peck Associates says he continues to favor "earnings-up-trend" issues for longer-term appreciation and feels that many such stocks have declined to levels at which indicated current year profits are being capitalized most conservatively.

Summer Project Planned

In spite of the summer "doldrums," the Palm Springs Opti-Mrs. Club will continue to meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month, according to the club president, Mrs. Morris Kozlen.

Hope Landfield has been appointed chairman of a new handicraft committee, and will direct club members in making various items to be sold at the Opti-Mrs. convention scheduled for November at the Palm Springs Riviera.

Proceeds from the sale of the handcrafted articles will go into a fund which the organization has just started to send underprivileged girls to summer camp.

Members of the club will host a spaghetti dinner July 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Grivell, to which husbands and guests have been invited. Assisting Mrs. Grivell with party plans are the Mesdames Herman Wittenberg, Rick Costi, and Lee Munro, and Mrs. Landfield.

OES Patrons Host Picnic

Carol M. Jensen, associate grand matron of the Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was among the honored guests when associate patrons of the Orange Belt Association, OES, ena a picnic in Lytle Park.

Also listed among the guests were the grand patron, Edwin Col. lin of Santa Monica, and Mrs. Col. lin, the associate matron and patron of Desert Star Chapter, Midge Miller and George Hyde; and the associate matron and patron of Yucca Valley Chapter, Harold and Josephine Briggs.

HOPE TO REIGN AT SALINAS RODEO

Girls Vie for 'Sweetheart' Title

Two young desert equestriennes, Miss Janis Coble and Miss Sheila Hovey, will compete in the Sweetheart Contest during the California Rodeo and Horse Fair at Salinas on July 18 and 19.

Contestants for the annual title will be judged on their horsemanship, appearance in Western attire, personality, and scholarship. Being named "sweetheart" is tantamount to being proclaimed champion cowgirl of California.

Miss Coble, the niece of Warren Coble of Lazy C Ranch and a senior at Palm Springs High School, is being sponsored in the contest by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. A blue-eyed blonde, she is five feet, five inches tall and weighs 118 pounds. She has ridden in the Palm Springs Rodeo and in Desert Circus parades since she was four years old and reigned as Junior Rodeo Queen in 1961.

A Competitor

At Salinas, she will ride her own horse, Jubilee, a chestnut gelding she has raised and trained.

Vying in the same contest will be the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin P. Hovey of Palm Springs, who is entered as "Miss Winter Golf Capital" under the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Sheila was valedictorian of Palm Valley High School's graduating class, and she plans to enter UCLA in the autumn as a psychology major.

In contrast to her competitor's blondeness, she is black haired, with deep blue eyes; at five feet, five inches tall, she weighs in at 116 pounds.

High Point Winner

Sheila has won the high-point trophy for the season at Shadow Mountain, the pinto pleasure class at Del Mar, and the stock horse class at the Menlo Circus Club. She has also won the two-medal class, enabling her to participate in the horse show at San Francisco's Cow Palace. In the Salinas competition, she will be riding Tip Topper, a pinto mare she has had since she was ten years old.

Pretty Wedding Solemnized At Mission Inn Chapel

Of considerable interest here was the beautifully appointed ceremony in Riverside at which Miss Jeri-Lou Kudell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henry Kudell of Rancho Mirage and Los Angeles, became the bride of Michael Robert Smith.

St. Francis Chapel at Mission Inn was the scene of the late afternoon nuptials, which were followed by a reception held in Atrio next to the chapel. Joining the wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. Kudell in the receiving line were the parents of the benedict, Mr. and Mrs. S. Robert Smith of Orill-lia, Ontario, Canada, who spend their winters in Palm Springs at the Desert Air Hotel.

The wedding of the popular young pair took place at 4:30 o'clock. As she gave her vows, the bride was wearing a Bianca gown of taffeta, misted with silk organza, and embroidered with seed pearls. The bodice was simply designed with three-quarter-length sleeves and a widely scooped neckline; the skirt fell in straight lines to the floor, and was detailed in back with a court train.

A Taffeta Crown

Her veil was elbow length, flaring from a taffeta crown; her flowers were a shower of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

She was served by Miss Susy Smith of Palm Desert as her maid of honor. In secondary roles were Miss Lynn Wise of Placerville, Miss Susan Hovey of Palm Springs and the benedict's sister, Miss Shonagh Smith, who came down with her parents from Orillia.

Performing best man duties was Allan Rosen of Palm Springs; in the ushering contingent were Richard Black, Gary Landers, and Mike Shouff, all of Riverside.

Off on Honeymoon

While their reception was still at its height, the just-weds left by motor for a honeymoon journey that will take them to Seattle and the World's Fair, through Canada to the Smith home in Orillia, and on to New York and the New England states. They will be at home to their friends after Aug. 15 in Riverside at 4575 Jurupa.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Smith were both graduated from Palm Valley High School and then attended Riverside City College, where the benedict was assistant editor of the college paper, and president of Beta Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity. They plan to enter the University of California at Riverside in the autumn.

Miss Strebe Gives Vows In Pink and White Ritual

Pink and white set the color theme for the recent ceremony at which Miss Dorothy Ann Strebe and John Allen Strozier Jr. exchanged their marriage vows.

The pretty rites were read at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Frederick Barnhill in St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church.

The new Mrs. Strozier is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Clifford Strebe; her husband's parents are the John Allen Stroziers of Akron, Ohio.

Pink printed silk was fashioned into the frock which the bride's sister, Mrs. William K. Porter III (Susan Strebe) of La Jolla, wore for her maton of honor role. The same silk was repeated in the full-skirted dress of the flower girl, Debra Gail Miller, who held a basket of white flowers.

In Pink Organza ...

The two bridesmaids, Miss Leith Ramsey and Miss Carol Sebald of La Jolla, chose pale pink silk organza over taffeta. The trio added petal hats of matching organza, and carried pink roses framed with deep green fern.

The ring bearer was young Gary Lee Miller.

As the bride and her father followed the attendants to the altar, she was wearing a beautifully simple full-length gown of untrimmed white peau de soie, accented with a magnificent veil of Belgium lace given her by her grandmother, Mrs. Zadie Bunker. Her flowers were white orchids with sprays of stephanotis.

The Male Contingent

The benedict awaited her at the altar with Robert O. Higgins as his best man. Ushering duties were performed by Andrew Clapham, Larry Acton, and Philip Miller.

Following a reception hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Strebe in their Tachevah Drive home, the just-weds left for a motor journey up the Coast to San Francisco and the family home at Yelm, Wash. Then they will go to Salt Lake City to live while the benedict continues his graduate studies at the University of Utah.

The new Mrs. Strozier received her education at The Bishop's

A correlative citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 142): "Truth is God's remedy for error of every kind, and Truth destroys only what is untrue. Hence the fact that, to-day, as yesterday, Christ casts out evils and heals the sick."

Independence Sunday Will Be Observed

Seek Ways to Make Mixed Religion Marriages Work

By LOUIS CASSELS

For many years, pastors had one word of advice for couples contemplating a religiously mixed marriage.

The word was: Don't.

This is still the first and best counsel they have to offer to the young people who are thinking of marrying outside their faith.

But they now recognize that it cannot be their last word on the subject. In spite of all warnings, mixed marriages are taking place in large numbers. Unable to prevent them, pastors are seeking ways to make them work.

"There has been no change in the church's opposition to mixed

Marine Base Bible School Huge Success

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The Marine Corps Base Vacation Bible School for the summer of 1962 is over, and it was a complete success with an average of 96 pupils attending every day.

The classes started on June 11 and each session lasted two hours. The children, ranging in age from 2-year olds through 6th graders, were divided into four groups, the nursery, beginners, primary, and the juniors.

"Thanks to the valued assistance of the mothers who provided their time to see that refreshments were served, and those who took time to assist the instructors, and those who were assigned the task of heading the departments, the school was very worthwhile program. We will be looking forward to repeating the school next summer," said Chaplain Watts, director of the school.

Series on Bible Heroes To Continue

Conservative Party in England on Decline

In Great Britain these days, Liberal party leader Jo Grimmond is talking happily about forming a government if his party wins 200 seats in the House of Commons in the next general elections.

Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskell is challenging the government to hold general elections now instead of waiting until late in 1963.

"I have little doubt that we could win it," says Gaitskell. And the Conservative party of Prime Minister Harold Macmillan plumbly is preparing for another in a series of by-elections which have demonstrated a steady dwindling of party popularity.

In view of the fact that the once-great Liberal party of Gladstone and Lloyd George now holds but seven seats in the House and has not participated in a British government since 1945, no one yet is taking very seriously the idea that they can win 200 seats.

Conservative Decline
Yet the fact that Grimmond is not being laughed out of the House also illustrates what has been happening in British politics. In the House of Commons, the Conservatives retain a safe working margin of 365 to 250 for Labor, seven for the Liberals and eight Independents.

But since 1959, the Conservatives are estimated to have lost 17 per cent of the vote, much of it to the resurgent Liberals.

The Liberals also have taken votes from Labor but by a lower percentage estimated at one to two.

The Liberal upsurge is not explainable by any very clearly outlined program presented to British voters. The program consists mainly of a contention that whatever the government is doing, they can do better, and that the Conservatives are old and tired, unable to provide dynamic leadership.

Primarily, British observers say, the Liberal appeal seems to consist of a desire for new faces.

Hope for Split
At any rate, the Liberal gains have encouraged Gaitskell and his fellow Laborites to hope for a split vote and Labor's return to power.

At present Macmillan is hampering on two themes—Britain's prosperity and low unemployment, and the fruits to be gained by entry into the European Common Market.

This is an event still by no means certain and so far has not proved itself a sufficiently glamorous issue to fire British voters with any wild enthusiasm.

FORTUNATE MAN

N.Y. Man Collects Bank Vault Doors as Hobby

By JESSE BOGUE

NEW YORK (UPI)—Among collectors and hobbyists today, Harry Pape is a fortunate man.

He has few worries about locking up his unique hoard. It would be almost impossible for anyone to walk off with it: Too hard to hock. It can be kept in a warehouse, safely preserved in grease where necessary.

A product of the depression, his collection is—bank vault doors.

"It was a perfectly logical thing to do," said Pape, explaining how he got started.

Pape has been overseer of construction projects for the Chase National Bank for the past 39 years. During the depression the bank closed several branches and in the process was required to remove vaults, including the doors. They could have been sold for junk. A 65,000-pound door would have brought perhaps $800, Pape explained. But it would cost $30,000 new, and $3,000 to remove and store. "So I became a vault door collector."

At present Pape has two doors in storage, a main door and an emergency door 24 inches thick. The doors are stored in a steel warehouse. His experience during the depression made him feel that the project which he started was worth while.

"It was only a matter of time before we would begin opening branches again, and when that happened, we'd need vault doors. We saved quite a few dollars because of it," he said.

Golfing

with ALEX MORRISON
Teacher of Champions

Ken Venturi, a stylist among touring pros, believes that good swinging form is as important as low scoring.

KEN VENTURI has attained a precision in striking the ball seldom only by great swingers like Mac Smith, Henry Cotton, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead.

As I photographed Venturi's performances recently he remarked: "I just can't hit them better."

I added: "Now that you can swing with such rhythm and smoothness you should send a very high level of self expression and satisfaction."

Ken agreed: "I certainly do. I've always believed that golf has an esthetic side, that a player should feel obliged to master good form."

And he objects to the casual rating of ball-beaters and scramblers as great players: "Scorers maybe, but not real golfers."

In pointing for top events during the past year Ken brought his game to razor sharpness, but in each case, suffered setbacks in health or breaks. Also, he must add to his idealism the practical side needed to win from scrambling, lucky competitors.

Yankee Stadium Continues To Put Voodoo on Angels

NEW YORK (UPI) —The Los Angeles Angels don't lost without a fight to the New York Yankees in Yankee Stadium. But the sad fact for Manager Bill Rigney and his crew is that they do lose.

Whitey Ford, back in harness with three wins in the last week, was the villain Friday night as the Yanks turned back the Angels 6-3 to mark the 11th loss over two seasons for Los Angeles in the big stadium. The Angels still haven't beaten the defending American League champs here.

In today's afternoon game, Ted Bowsfeld, 2-3, got the nod from Rigney to oppose Bud Daley, 2-1. Los Angeles kicks up a storm in Boston, but whatever ingredients make the Red Sox spellbound for Angel pitchers and batters disappeared by the time Los Angeles hit the home of the Yankees.

Again Friday night, the Angels put up a strong fight and came from behind to tie the score at 3-3 in the seventh after trailing most of the distance. Ford was guilty of an error, Leon Wagner singled and Bob Rodgers tripled for two Angel runs in the seventh that tied the count.

It was short-lived, however, as the Yanks buzzed back for a single tally in the seventh on an infield grounder by Yogi Berra that scored Tom Tresh the go-ahead run. Two more Yankees tallied in the eighth on singles by Joe Pepitone, Tresh and Bob by Richardson, along with an error by Los Angeles shortstop Joe Koppe.

Jack Spring, second of three Angel pitchers, took the loss because of the tie-breaking run in the bottom of the seventh. Ken McBride had started and lasted five innings, during which he yielded three runs.

Ford gave up only four safeties and two earned runs. But he saw a streak of 20-2-3 scoreless innings snapped when Albie Pearson hit his first homer of the season as leadoff batter in the game. A crowd of 26,745 watched the opener of a four-game set.

BESPECTACLED Billie Jean Moffitt makes a backhand return during her match against her roommate and friend Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, who she defeated 7-5, 6-3, to advance to the fourth round of the Women's Tennis Championship at Wimbledon, England. Bille is favored to defeat Sonja Pachta of Austria today.

Tonight's 40 Lap Event Highlights Race Card

Billy Cantrell of Ontario, a native win of the year in last weeks "Tiger" Jim Roessler of San Bernardino will be the drivers to beat in this evening's 40 lap main event for CJA Super-Modified race cars at San Bernardino's National Orange Show Stadium, where more than 50 cars and drivers will battle in the nine event program over the one-quarter mile clay oval where racing begins at 8:30 p.m., preceded by time trials at 7 p.m.

Cantrell driving a Thunderbird powered car, has finished second in the main event for the last two Saturday evenings, while Roessler 1960-61 CJA champion driving a Corvette powered car scored his first home town feature win of the year in last weeks 40 lap main event.

While Roessler will be going for his second main event win in a row, and his fifth of the year on the CJA Circuit, Cantrell is still looking for his first win of the year. Three other top drivers who will be out to stop Cantrell and Roessler are, Jack Austin of Downey, number two man in points driving a Buick V8 powered machine. He has yet to take a main event win at the Orange Show, although he finished third in last weeks race.

Along with Austin will be two previous main event winners at the Orange Show Stadium, Preacher Rogers, and Chuck Robbins, both of San Bernardino, and both driving Corvette powered cars. Rogers took the main event win two weeks ago, while Robbins captured his win during the annual Orange Show auto races, held in March.

2-Way Tie in Tourney

CHICAGO (UPI) — Gamblers' gall paid off today for Jacky Capit and Paul Harney, midway pace setters in the $50,000 Western Open golf tournament with three under par 139's.

They were the only players in a starting field of 132 who could better the par of 71 on Medinah's tough No. 3 course, 7,110 yards of woods, rough and water, for two consecutive days.

Each was two under with a first round 69 and Friday each could cut only one more stroke off, finishing with 70's.

Capit hit into the woods only once, and that cost him one of the three bogies on his round.

Hurler Leads P.S. Paint To Victory

Palm Springs Paint, led by pitcher Olvera scored a 16-4 victory over the basement team, the "Elks", at the Polo Grounds. Olvera allowed only one hit for the five innings of play, and batted 3 for 3 himself.

In the Keystone League, the BPOE "Elks" allowed only four hits to bring them to a victory against the George Cameron "Pirates." Pitching for the "Elks" was Roy Crawford, and the big stick for them was Carlos Reyes, batting 2 for 3 with 2 RBI's.

Gus Walton led the Legionnaires to a 12-8 victory over the BPOE Elks last night at the Polo Grounds. Big sticks for the Legionnaires were Steve Gottlieb, who was three for three, Gus Walton, batting three for four, Frank Rivers, also three for four and Dave Miles, hitting two for three.

In the Pony League, the action didn't end until the last inning, when Robert Taylor slammed a triple, sending in three men to bring the score to an 8-7 win against PS Paint.

Santa Clara Official Blasts Baseball Scouts

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (UPI) — The athletic moderator of the University of Santa Clara is fed up with professional baseball scouts who "come in with the big talk and big money and snatch away the heart of a team."

The Rev. James E. Sweeters, S.J., whose own school is suffering this season from the raids of the pros, voiced his complaint Friday in a letter to baseball commissioner Ford Frick. He blasted the "ruthless, persistent" big league scouts who "promise the almighty dollar, glory, security and the moon" to entice collegiate players into the professional ranks.

Santa Clara's baseball team recently lost shortstop Ernie Fazio, who helped the club become runner-up in this year's NCAA championships. Fazio, who had another year of eligibility, went to the Houston Colts for a reported $75,000.
